

AMERICAN EAGLE SILVER COINS AVAILABLE AT CCB

LITTLE VALLEY, NY — CCB (Cattaraugus County Bank) is pleased to announce the arrival of year 2009 American Eagle Silver Dollars. Customer Service Representatives at all 9 CCB locations begin selling the coins on Monday, April 20th, 2009. The cost for a 2009 American Eagle Silver Dollar has decreased from 2008.

The beautiful Eagle coins contain 0.999 troy ounces of fine silver and come in a decorative velvet box. “These coins are, and have been in the past, such a hit with the public,” states Joni Simcick, CCB Vice President. “People find many occasions where one of these attractive coins make a truly special gift. Graduations, Holiday gifts, birthdays, weddings, babies... the public relies on CCB to offer these American Eagle coins each year. As always, CCB has come through to provide our customer’s this opportunity. I encourage everyone to plan on purchasing one (or more) of these beautiful coins.”

CCB has held the sale of American Eagle coins for many, many years. Because of the popularity of the coins and the limited supply, Simcick encourages people to stop by soon to purchase them before the supply is exhausted.

CCB is an FDIC insured New York State chartered independent, community bank. From January 2, 1902, CCB has established an unprecedented record of fiscal integrity and sound financial growth, which now totals near 149 million in assets.
